

Date: July 21 –22, 2009

Time: 8am-3pm (7/21)
8am-11:30am (7/22)

Registration Fee: $25

Teachers: $20

Students/Soldiers: $15

The workshop is intended for military, government, and NGO personnel who may be working in Afghanistan, or who are working with Afghan cultural issues.

 The workshop also includes Pashto language instruction for negotiating daily situations

Intercultural Sensitivity Workshop for Afghanistan

presented by The Middle East Studies Center at The Ohio State University

The Afghan Culture Workshop is a current events-based course, providing cultural and background information to prepare those who will be living and/or working in Afghanistan, or for dealing with cultural issues domestically.

Topics Include:

- History of Afghanistan
- US-Afghan relations
- The Drug Trade
- Daily life and customs of diverse Afghan linguistic and cultural

Middle East Studies Center

321a Oxley Hall,
1712 Neil Ave.
Columbus, OH 43210-1219

Office: 614-292-5897
Fax: 614-292-4273
E-mail: mesc@osu.edu

Register Online at:

[http://ced.osu.edu/
AfghanStudiesWorkshop/index.html](http://ced.osu.edu/AfghanStudiesWorkshop/index.html)

Location:
Mount Hall, 1050 Carmack Road
Columbus OH 43210